The Nasher Museum of Art, Duke University Central Campus, 2001 Campus Drive, Durham. Through Jan. 8, 2017 - "Southern Accent: Seeking the American South in Contemporary Art," questions and explores the complex and contested space of the American South. One needs to look no further than literature, cuisine and music to see evidence of the South's profound influence on American culture, and consequently much of the world. This unprecedented exhibition addresses and complicates the many realities, fantasies and myths that have long captured the public's imagination about the American South. Presenting a wide range of perspectives, from both within and outside of the region, the exhibition creates a composite portrait of southern identity through the work of 60 artists. The art reflects upon and pulls apart the dynamic nature of the South's social, political and cultural landscape. Through May 28, 2017 - "The Collection Galleries". Highlighting 5,000 years of art, The Collection Galleries contain rotating installations of the Nasher Museum's extensive holdings. Eight galleries, and also the entrance to Wilson Pavilion, are dedicated to the collection's strengths, which include a variety of cultures and time periods. The Incubator is a flexible gallery used for continuously changing faculty- and student-curated projects and thematic installations. These galleries provide context for the collection while also illustrating a brief history of human creativity from different parts of the world. Visit often to make new discoveries at the Nasher! Also - Nasher Museum Café and Museum Shop. Admission: Yes, but free to Durham residents, courtesy of "The Herald-Sun" newspaper. GreenHill, a space for NC art, 200 North Davie Street, Greensboro Cultural Center, Greensboro. Main Gallery, Through Nov. 6 - "Insistent Objects: Works by Young NC Sculptors". Artist's talks will be offered on Oct. 7 at 5:30pm with a reception to follow at 6pm. This is the first sculpture survey organized by GreenHill in a decade, highlighting works in the round by 18 hand-picked young contemporary artists who work, teach, graduated from a MFA program or participated in an artist residency in North Carolina. "True to GreenHill's mission of promoting and advocating for NC artists, Insistent Objects offers visitors a chance to meet 18 emerging artists under 40 years old who are producing some of the most innovative and evocative work in contemporary sculpture today," says Laura Way, Executive Director. Participating artists include Ivana Milojevic Beck, Casey Cook, Andy Denton, Aaron Earley, Mario Gallucci, Rachel K. Garceau, Peter Goff, Joe Grant, Paul Howe, Kamal Nassif, Benjamin S. Reid, John Seefeldt, Austin Sheppard, Meg

Stein, Frankie Toan, Kevin M. Vanek, Lu Xu and Ashley York. Mediums represented include cast aluminum and clay, welded steel, carved wood, paper, fiber and wax, many exploring contrasts between hand-made and mass-produced consumer objects. Kinetic and participatory works, along with works that incorporate found objects will be on display. On Oct. 6 GreenHill will present a public lecture by Tom Moran, Chief Curator and Director of Artistic Development of Grounds for Sculpture, Glenn Harper, Editor, "Sculpture Magazine", and Brooklyn-based artist Michael Ballou as part of GreenHill's NC Art Outreach Project to facilitate connections between North Carolina artists and professionals in their field. InFocus Gallery, Through Nov. 13 - "Selected by Robin Barefoot," featuring works from a long-time GreenHill collector and supporter, will bring together three artists whose work is colorful, vibrant and highly collectible. Drawing on Robin's approach to collecting, where the art is an integral part of her home, the works will be sure to please. Selected artists include Courtney Dodd, Sharon Dowell, Linda Luise Brown and Miriam Durkin. Admission: ArtQuest Studios: $6 adult/child; children under 1 are free and free admission with Household-Level Membership or higher. The Gallery, InFocus Gallery + the Shop: $5 (suggested donation). GreenHill hours: Tue.-Fri., noon-7pm; Sat., noon-5pm; & Sun. 2-5pm. ArtQuest Studios are closed on Sun. Guilford College Art Gallery, Hege Library, 5800 W. Friendly Avenue, Greensboro. Guilford College Art Gallery, Through Oct. 30 - "Judith Belzer - Canal Zone: Recent Work from the Panama Project". Belzer is an artist whose work has been featured in national exhibitions for more than 20 years. In 2014, she was awarded the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Fellowship for the Fine Arts, which she used to travel to the Panama Canal, in order to further her investigations into what she has called "the Edgelands, the places where the natural and man-made worlds collide." Robert C. Ketner Vitruvian, Through Oct. 30 - "Through a Wide Angle Lens: Visions of Panama and the Canal," featuring photographs by Maria Luisa Amado and Joe Jowers. Amado and Jowers' photographic exhibit portrays the small boats that transport the common people of Panama, juxtaposed against the large cargo ships that cross the Panama Canal. Hege Library Atrium, Through Oct. 30 - "Welcoming the Stranger: An Installation by Jo Israelson". "Abraham's Tent," a 50' long canopy, composed of hand-woven panels is the focal point of this installation. The Bible, the Qur'an, and the Hebrew Scriptures each include the story of Abraham welcoming 3 strangers into his home for a meal and hospitality. Taking inspiration from this parable, Israelson sought to turn strangers into friends through inviting local community members to help "weave the tent" at the Nat'l. Folk Festival held in Greensboro, Sept 9-11. Ongoing - Additional galleries feature rotating selections from the College's wide-ranging permanent collection of fine art and craft. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm & Sun., 2-5pm. Contact: 336/316-2438.
