Work by Alain Mailland

Blue Spiral 1, 38 Biltmore Ave., Asheville. Main Gallery, Through Oct. 26 - "Cut and Paste: Collage Works". Collage, derived from the French word "coller", to glue, is the joining of paper and other found objects onto paper, canvas or wood. This exhibition shows a wide range of artists who utilize collage as one of their main modes of creative expression. They run the gamut from the traditional joining of paper to paper to incorporating digital techniques to create and enhance the collage. Artists work in paper, fabric, recycled materials, wood and natural objects. Participating artists include: Janice Colbert, Vicki Essig, Luke Haynes, Bryant Holsenbeck, Kreh Mellick, Isaac Payne, Jon Sours, David Samuel Stern, Akiko Sugiyama, and Katie Walker. Showcase Gallery, Through Oct. 26 - "A Gathering: Mary Engel and Charles Keiger". Combining serene, sentient beings with surreal, and often absurd characters, Mary Engel and Charles Keiger present a gathering of creatures great and small. Engel's trinket and gem encrusted animal sculptures celebrate the beauty and nobility of animals, while also drawing attention to the threat to their existence. Keiger's folk-inspired narrative paintings feature animals in protagonist roles, exercising dominion over their fantastical surroundings. Small Format Gallery, Through Oct. 26 - "Alain Mailland". Using mainly precious roots and species from his native country of France - pistachio, hackberry, root of heather - Alain Mailland creates sculptures representing a correspondence between animals, minerals, and plants. Mailland began his journey with as a carpenter and mason. He gradually changed his focus from wood joining to woodturning and has since dedicated himself exclusively to this craft. Lower Level Gallery, Through Oct. 26 - "Step Into the Light: Alex Bernstein and Mitchell Lonas". Using carved glass and incised aluminum, Alex Bernstein and Mitchell Lonas respectively create intimate narratives which, unlike the cold, hard materials they use, soften as gestural qualities and subject matter are revealed. Key to both artists' work is light. Light energizes and brings their work to life, enhancing color, form and imagery. While Lonas etches his shimmering stylized trees, feathers, nests, waterfalls and animals from aluminum panels coated in matte black, Bernstein carves and polishes colorful, translucent cast glass to unveil abstract sculptures inspired by the natural world. Upper Level Galleries, Through Oct. 26 - "Asheville Oblique". Ken Carder presents kinetic wood sculptures paired with abstract paintings of Asheville, painted by Tennessee artist Steve Ward. This collaboration began with Steve creating interpretive paintings of Ken's digitally altered screengrabs of Asheville locations. In response to the absence of figures in these urban paintings, Ken constructed kinetic wooden sculptures out of dying ash trees that threatened to fall on his studio. Through improvised abstraction, both artists demonstrate abstract works that invite the viewer to observe the architecture and natural resources of our vibrant city through a lens askew. Ongoing - Featuring works in a variety of mediums by regional, national and international artists.
