Asheville Area

Work by Thornton Dial

Asheville Art Museum, 2 South Pack Square at Pack Place, Asheville. Jan. 25 - May 18 - "Social Geographies: Interpreting Space and Place". A reception will be held on Jan. 26, from 2-5pm and curator Dr. Leisa Rundquist will speak at 3pm. The art world operates within geographic frameworks. Spatial divisions between "inside" and "outside" impact how the art world describes, identifies and validates artists featured within the exhibition, Social Geographies: Interpreting Space and Place. Whether deemed "outsider" - Henry Darger, Martín Ramírez, George Widener - or "self-taught" - Thornton Dial, Sr., Minnie Evans, Lonnie Holley - these artists bear categorical markers that organize their art but do not adequately speak of their art's unique qualities and circumstances. In response to such prescriptive terms, "Social Geographies" asks viewers to experience artwork regarded as different, differently. Through Jan. 19 - "Lasting Gifts". Celebrating the Asheville Art Museum's Black Mountain College (BMC) Collection, Lasting Gifts features a selection of art works from a wide array of students and teachers who attended the legendary Black Mountain College. This progressive liberal arts college, which operated from 1933 - 1957 in Black Mountain, North Carolina, welcomed and nurtured a group of creative individuals who have made significant contributions to American art and culture. Josef Albers, Anni Albers, Robert Rauschenberg, John Cage, Merce Cunningham, Ruth Asawa and Buckminster Fuller all studied or taught at Black Mountain College. Through Jan. 12 - "Esteban Vicente: The Art of Interruption - Painting, Drawing, Collage". Within the first generation of Abstract Expressionists, Esteban Vicente was a member of the most influential circles of artists. During the course of his long and lauded career, he closely studied shape, light and the possibilities of pigment. The artist completed his studies at the Real Academia de Bellas Artes in Madrid in 1924. In 1936, Vicente moved to New York and then to Philadelphia. During his first decade in the United States, Vicente exhibited at the Kleeman Galleries, the Bonestell Gallery, and the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. Through Jan. 26 - "Rebels with a Cause". The exhibit presents selected paintings, drawings and sculptures from the Huntsville Museum of Art's recently acquired Sellars Collection of Art by American Women. This landmark holding celebrates the achievements of over 250 talented female artists active from the mid-19th to the mid-20th centuries. Many of these artists rebelled against the convention of their day by exhibiting alongside their male counterparts, receiving awards and pioneering the way for those who would follow. Today, art historians are rediscovering these artists' accomplishments and establishing their rightful place in the expanding narrative of American art history. Through Mar. 16 - "Experiments in Color: Selections from Josef Albers's Portfolios". Gathered in part from the Asheville Art Museum's Permanent Collection, this exhibition presents a selection of prints by German-born artist and educator Josef Albers (1888 - 1976) from the portfolios "Interaction of Color," 1963, and "Formulation: Articulation," 1972. As an artist, Albers is best known for painting, printmaking, and creating masterpieces of geometric Abstraction. Albers enjoyed a nearly 50-year career in teaching at schools such as Bauhaus at Weimar and Dessau, Black Mountain College and Yale University. Admission: Yes. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Fri. till 8pm & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 828/253-3227 or at (www.ashevilleart.org).

The Folk Art Center of the Southern Highland Craft Guild, Blue Ridge Parkway Milepost 382, Asheville. Main Gallery, Through Jan. 12, 2014 - "Tapestry Weavers South Exhibition: the Beat Goes On". Tapestry Weavers South is an organization dedicated to advancing the art and craft of tapestry weaving. In 1996 eighteen people interested in Tapestry attended a retreat in Dahlonega, GA, that became the initial meeting for a regional organization of tapestry weavers. From that meeting Tapestry Weavers South (TWS) was formed. Permanent Collection Gallery, Ongoing - "Craft Traditions: The Southern Highland Craft Guild Collection". The Guild's Permanent Collection is comprised of approximately 2400 craft objects and dates from the late 19th century to present. Beginning with a donation from Frances Goodrich in 1931, the Permanent Collection serves the Guild's mission of craft conservation and education. This new installation will feature over 200 works that highlight our holdings in traditional art: woodcarving, pottery, dolls, basketry, weavings and furniture. The subject of this ongoing exhibition is craft history - that of the Southern Highland Craft Guild and the Studio Craft Movement. Focus Gallery, Through Jan. 28 - Featuring mixed media works by Annie Fain Liden and works in fiber by Martha Owen. Annie Fain Liden-Barralon, daughter of co-exhibitor Martha Owen, grew up three miles from the John C. Campbell Folk School in Brasstown, NC. She's been making art, playing traditional music and dancing since her earliest years and is now making her living doing all three. Since discovering the magic of bookarts and paper making during a concentration at Penland School of Crafts in 2002 she has taken every possible opportunity to continue her studies in book structure, design, book repair and small business entrepreneurship. Martha Owen is a resident artist at the John C Campbell Folkschool in Brasstown, NC in spinning/knitting/feltmaking and dyeing. Her adventure in spinning began at this very school in 1978. Her idea of what she what she was interested in jelled in a two week introductory class where she learned to wash, card, spin, and dye wool. By 1980 her extended family included several very wooly sheep and Angora rabbits (French) and a Border Collie. Hours: daily from 9am-5pm. Contact: 828/298-7928 or at (www.southernhighlandguild.org).

The Odyssey Gallery, 238 Clingman Ave., Asheville. Ongoing - Our gallery exhibits new work by many of the fine ceramic artists who have been part of Odyssey during the last 20 years. Work by Carl Galie

Turchin Center for the Visual Arts, Appalachian State University, 423 West King Street, Boone. Galleries A & B, West Wing, Through Jan. 25 - "Photographs by Hugh Morton: An Uncommon Retrospective". A project in partnership with the North Carolina Collection Photographic Archives in Wilson Library at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. NC photographer Hugh Morton (1921-2006) created an estimated quarter-million negatives and transparencies during his lifetime. He learned his craft during summers at a camp near Grandfather Mountain and his work has been published in countless publications. Mayer Gallery, West Wing, Through Jan. 25 - "Orna Bendor: Landscapes Within". High Country artist, Orna Bendor, showcases paintings that reflect the many phases of her past, present and life experiences—from her childhood in Israel to overcoming physical disabilities. Main Gallery, East Wing, Through Feb. 8 - "Men Working: The Contemporary Collection of Allen Thomas, Jr. In Memory of Robert S. Grady". The collection of Allen Thomas, Jr. features artists working in a variety of two-and three-dimensional media from all around the world. Community Gallery, East Wing, Through Jan. 11 - "Susan Webb Tregay: Contemporary Art for Adult Children". A native of nearby Hendersonville, Susan Webb Tregay's fun and free spirit in her works reflect her main goal—to have fun with her art. Focusing on painting experiences, she has captured what it is like to be an adult child. Mezzanine Gallery, East Wing, Through Feb. 8 - "Lost on the Road to Oblivion: The Vanishing Beauty of Coal Country: Carl Galie". Award-winning Winston-Salem photographer Carl Galie's exhibition is a project in which Galie immersed himself in order to reclaim his sense of home and search for the truth embodied in that yearning. His work takes the viewer on a journey through the Southern Appalachians while documenting the practice of mountaintop removal, as well as its collateral fallout, in a series of images depicting an endangered natural environment. Galie's photographs pose the question: 'Should years of environmental regulations be overruled in an attempt to stimulate the economy by allowing mountaintop removal to continue?' Hours: 10am-6pm, Tue., Wed., Thur., & Sat. and Fri., noon -8pm. Contact: Hank T. Foreman at 828/262-3017 or at (www.turchincenter.org).
