Wow! You made it all the way to the end. But if you're thinking this is all too much to take in - well sure, 60 + pages of content is a lot to take in unless you're reading a juicy novel, but I hate to be the one to tell you this - Carolina Arts will just keep growing until Summer comes around.

But, you don't have to take it in all at once. If you downloaded a copy of the paper to your computer's desktop, your smart phone or tablet of choice - you can go back to it again and again all month.

As more exhibit providers learn that we did not die or discover us for the first time, they will start sending us more and more each month. And hopefully there will be more advertisers as well. There's no cheaper way to expose your exhibit, gallery, institution, or artwork to 20,000 + readers. And, there is no where else that you can find this much info about the visual art community in the Carolinas.

This space is just a little bigger than a 1/4 page ad which is only $35. That would buy you about 70 - 80 first class stamps to mail to people you already know. Not including the cost of printing up a card.

So what do you get for wading through these 61 pages - besides all the information, a sales pitch, and the visual stimuli?

Well, you might get a headache. I know I did when I was trying to spot mistakes or typos. But, you're getting a heads up on all those who took a look and said - no way. And, they call themselves art lovers.

We're looking for more photos to go with our 25 pages of Gallery Listings - especially the commercial gallery listings. So, if you're a gallery owner or artist showing at one of the galleries listed - send us some images to break up all that text. We're looking for images that are about 3 inches wide at 300dpi. Just e-mail them to (info@carolinaarts.com) and we'll keep them on file to use - off and on. Who knows, you might send us something we think should be on one of our covers.

Now see, you know something others might not know because you went all the way to Page 61.
