Charleston Artist Guild in Charleston, SC, Offers Works by Kenneth Hanger

The Charleston Artist Guild in Charleston, SC, will present Rock On, a collection of paintings by Kenneth Hanger, on view in the Guild Gallery, from Apr. 1 - 30, 2017. A reception will be held on Apr. 7, from 5-8pm.

His exhibit reflects the artist's recent venture into watercolor and oils to reflect the rockier side of life.

Hanger is a local artist who has painted many years in the Lowcountry and in the hills of North Carolina. He began many years ago as a watercolorist, then took on oils as well. A recent workshop brought him back into the watercolor world, so this show includes both. In the last several years, the palette knife has formed the basis for many of his oils, which will be evident.

"I really like being able to go back and forth from the beautiful, soft, lucent shapes that watercolors bring about, to the precise and dramatic forms that oils and particularly the palette knife create," says Hanger. "I think you will enjoy both. I also enjoy flower still life and both ventures offer a different view of nature.

Work by Kenneth Hanger

My interpretation can range from photorealism to impressionistic, so get ready for the ride."

City of North Charleston, SC, Features SC Watermedia Society Traveling Show

The City of North Charleston's Cultural Arts Department is pleased to announce that works by The South Carolina Watermedia Society will be on exhibit at the North Charleston City Gallery from Apr. 4-27, 2017.

The collection of works, on loan through the South Carolina State Museum's Traveling Exhibitions Program, features the top 30 pieces from the group's 39th Annual Juried Exhibition. Selections were made by artist and author Marc Taro Holmes. A number of the works on view will be available for purchase, including the exhibit's Best in Show, a watercolor by Lynda English titled The Hands of a Fisherman.

The South Carolina Watermedia Society is the only statewide visual arts organization in South Carolina to promote artists who work in watermedia, which includes watercolor, acrylic, gouache and casein, among others. As the state's largest visual arts guild, their membership includes some of South Carolina's best artists. Their annual juried exhibition, which has been presented since 1977, offers both new and established artists from around the state the opportunity to compete for prize money and to have their work exhibited in a variety of venues under the supervision of the South Carolina State Museum's Traveling Exhibitions Program.

In addition, the group provides a number of other exhibition opportunities, educational programs, and avenues for professional development. For more information, visit scwatermedia.com.

The North Charleston City Gallery is situated in two corridors of the northwest corner of the Charleston Area Convention Center, located on Coliseum Drive in North Charleston, SC. Inquiries regarding the artists or purchase information may be directed to the North Charleston Cultural Arts Department at 843/740-5854.

For further information on additional exhibits, programs, and events, visit the Arts & Culture section of the City's website at (www.northcharleston.org).

Fabulon in Charleston, SC, Offers a Garden Focused Exhibit

Fabulon, a Center for Art and Education in Charleston, SC, will present Back to the Garden, an exhibit and art sale with works on display from Apr. 1 - 29, 2017. An earth friendly information fair will be held on Apr. 8, from 3-5pm and reception from 5-8pm.

Do you remember a simpler time in life, without all of today's electronics and life's distractions? On Apr. 8, from 3-5pm come join us at Fabulon and go "Back to the Garden" with an earth friendly information fair. Visit with our friends from the Birds of Prey Center and talk to specialists about living a more "green" lifestyle. Guest artist, Deane Bowers, will share her found treasures and guide guests in the process of making recycled art. This free event is family friendly.

This show will illuminate artists' ideals on nature and reverence for what we have. Artists will share views on ecology, sustainability, and global warming.

Guest artists participating include:

"The Hands of a Fisherman" by Lynda English the 2016 Best of Show winner

Work by Laura McRae-Hitchcock
