The Nasher Museum of Art, Duke University Central Campus, 2001 Campus Drive, Durham. Through May 13 - "La Vita Italiana: Italian Postwar Photography, 1950-1970." The exhibition is a candid look at life in postwar Italy through the eyes of approximately 20 Italian photographers. Relatively unknown in this country, these photographs reveal some of the humor, hardships and other aspects of everyday life in Italy after World War II. As Italy emerged from the tragedy and devastation of World War II, a pioneering generation of photographers and filmmakers developed a new visual language rooted in reality and authenticity in order to critically examine postwar life. Much consideration has been given to Italian film, but little attention has been directed to still photography from the same period, though both filmmakers and photographers shared similar aims and aesthetic inclinations. Pressing social worries, including immense poverty and decimated social and economic infrastructures, informed their subject matter. Through May 27 - "The Collection Galleries". Highlighting 5,000 years of art, The Collection Galleries contain rotating installations of the Nasher Museum's extensive holdings. Eight galleries, and also the entrance to Wilson Pavilion, are dedicated to the collection's strengths, which include a variety of cultures and time periods. The Incubator is a flexible gallery used for continuously changing faculty- and student-curated projects and thematic installations. These galleries provide context for the collection while also illustrating a brief history of human creativity from different parts of the world. Visit often to make new discoveries at the Nasher! Ongoing - Nasher Museum Café and Museum Shop.

GreenHill, a space for NC art, 200 North Davie Street, Greensboro Cultural Center, Greensboro. Main Gallery, Through Apr. 15 - "Slow Art," featuring works by Leigh Ann Hallberg, Setsuya Kotani, Jeannine Marchand and Jan-Ru Wan. In a world geared to immediacy and the necessity of compressing content and goods into efficiently deliverable units the artists in GreenHill's Slow Art exhibition ask the viewer to slow down. GreenHill Curator, Edie Carpenter explains, "Eastern and Western cultural influences come together in works by the four artists in the exhibition. Visitors are invited to enter a meditative mode and explore the reflective processes involved in creative deliberation and reverie." InFocus Gallery, Through Apr. 15 - "Selena Beaudry + Sarah Helser". A thoughtful gallery visitor observed that the rabbits in Sarah Helser's "Into the Twilight" seem to mimic the moon phases above them. What do you think? Helser says that her work is meant to express the beauty of the world around us, weaving together both realistic and abstract forms. "Each time I create a painting it is in the hope to reshape the familiar into something
