Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum and Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Galleries, Through Aug. 28 - "Helen Frankenthaler: Late Works, 1990-2003". Eminent among a second generation of postwar American abstract artists, Helen Frankenthaler's invention of the soak-stain technique expanded abstract painting possibilities while referencing figuration and landscape in unique ways. During the 1990s, as her practice continued to evolve through the use of diverse media and processes, she naturally transitioned from tackling canvases on the floor to using larger sheets of paper laid out on the floor or tabletops for easier accessibility. The continuity between the late work and what came before is striking—the fruits of an intuitive journey graced by mood, imagination, and technical facility. Gallery 6, Through Sept. 25 - "Mysterious and Magical: Surrealist Art from the Collection". Born in Europe in the aftermath of World War I, Surrealism arrived in America shortly thereafter and was enthusiastically embraced by a broad segment of artists. Its appeal continues today. Surrealism's goal was to release the unconscious mind's creative potential and merge the world of dream and fantasy with reality. Each artist sought his/her/their agencies of exploration, ranging from depictions of personal tales to embracing open-ended techniques. The artworks in Mysterious and Magical reflect these diverse themes and actions and hopefully inspire personal psychic investigations and revelations. This exhibition was organized by Elaine D. Gustafson, Curator of Collections. The Bob & Lissa Shelley McDowell Gallery, July 24 - Nov. 27 - "Art on Paper 2021: The 46th Exhibition". The Weatherspoon is pleased to announce the 46th presentation of "Art on Paper". A time-honored museum tradition, the exhibition features the work of artists who demonstrate the breadth of ways in which one can deploy the humble media of paper to extraordinary ends. From quiet observations amid quarantine, to surreal reflections on hybrid identities, to probing inquiries into the historical roots of racism, the artworks in this year's
