Rocky Mount

Maria V. Howard Arts Center, Imperial Centre for the Arts and Sciences, 270 Gay Street, Rocky Mount. Through Aug. 13 - "Collaginary," featuring works by Melinda Fine. Melinda Fine Collage is the creation of a puzzle. In her words, "I depict the psychic forces that act within and upon people. I create metaphorical landscapes of psychological states and whimsical narratives. Born in Boston, MA. and raised in Greensboro, NC, Fine earned undergraduate degrees in psychology and English and an MFA in creative writing from UNC-G. She studied printmaking at UNC-CH and attended two years of a graduate program at NCSU School of Design. Through Aug. 13 - "Freeman Vines: Hanging Tree Guitars," a traveling art exhibit. For over fifty years Freeman Vines has transformed materials culled from a forgotten landscape in his relentless pursuit of building a guitar capable of producing a singular tone that has haunted his dreams, including a series using wood from a tree used for lynchings. Vines befriended photographer Timothy Duffy in 2015, and the two began to document the guitars. Through Aug. 13 - "65th National Multi-Media Juried Art Exhibition". This juried art show is open to all US artists, 18 years and older. This year's juror, Eric McRay is a celebrated professional North Carolina artist and educator with work in permanent collections around the world. The exhibit is open to almost any medium including textiles, pottery, sculpture, printmaking, wood-working, painting, photography, and more. Each year, the juror selects a piece for the Acquisition Award (art added to our permanent collection), First, Second, and Third Place Awards.
