Asheville Area

Asheville Art Museum, 2 South Pack Square at Pack Place, Asheville. Appleby Foundation

Exhibition Hall, Through Oct. 24 - "Border Cantos I Sonic Border," a unique collaboration between American photographer Richard Mirsach and Mexican American sculptor and composer Guillermo Galindo, uses the power of art to explore and humanize the complex issues surrounding the Mexican-American border. Organized by Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, is a transformative and multi-sensory experience. Mirsach, who has photographed the border since 2004, beautifully captures landscapes and objects, including things left behind by migrants. His large-scale photographs, along with grids of smaller photos, highlight issues surrounding migration and its effect on regions and people, and also introduce a complicated look at policing the boundary. Explore Asheville Exhibition Hall, Through Sept. 5 - "American Perspectives: Stories from the American Folk Art Museum Collection". This exhibition showcases over 80 stellar works of folk and self-taught art including assemblages, needlework, paintings, pottery, quilts, and sculpture, which was organized by the American Folk Art Museum in New York. Everyone has stories to tell from both the private and mutual experiences encountered throughout their lifetime. American folk and self-taught artists capture these stories in powerful visual narratives that offer firsthand testimonies to chapters in the unfolding story of America from its inception to the present. Debra McClinton Gallery, Through Oct. 17 - "Useful and Beautiful: Silvercraft by William Waldo Dodge. Dodge moved to Asheville in 1924 as a trained architect and newly skilled silversmith. When he opened for business promoting his handwrought silver tableware, including plates, candlesticks, flatware (spoons, forks, and knives), and serving dishes, he did so in a true Arts and Crafts tradition. The Van Winkle Law Firm Gallery, Through Oct. 10 - "Draped and Veiled: 20 x 24 Polaroid Photographs by Joyce Tenneson". Standing behind the substantial presence of the large format Polaroid 20 x 24 camera - weighing 200 pounds and the size of a refrigerator - artists peer through the viewfinder towards another world. The 20 x 24 Polaroid adds an additional layer of veiling and diaphanous softness to the imagery in Tenneson's "Transformations" series. Ongoing - The Asheville Art Museum, the hub for 20th- and 21st-century American art in Western North Carolina, has re-opened to the public. The $24+ million, state-of-the-art facility encompasses 54,000 square feet and adds 70 percent more Collection gallery space. For the first time in the Museum's history, it has the capacity to host major traveling exhibitions from nationally recognized museums. The expansion increases its physical space and dramatically increases its role as a community center, educational resource, economic engine for WNC, and cultural concierge for the region's residents and visitors. Opening exhibitions include: "Appalachia Now! An Interdisciplinary Survey of Contemporary Art in Southern Appalachia," is the inaugural special exhibition of the newly renovated Museum. Curated by Jason Andrew, the juried exhibition features 50 artists of diverse backgrounds from the Southern Appalachian states of North Carolina, Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia. The exhibit provides a regional snapshot of the art of our time—a collective survey of contemporary Southern Appalachian culture. "Intersections in American Art," is the largest presentation ever drawn from the Museum's Collection of 5,000+ works and 4,000+ architectural drawings. It celebrates the unique qualities of art from Western North Carolina, placed within the context of art from across the United States. Admission: Yes. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Fri. till 8pm & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 828/253-3227 or at (www.ashevilleart.org).
