Work by Tanaka Junko from the exhibit, A Tale of Two Sisters: Gifts from Ethel S. Brody and Leona Sobel.

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Lipscomb Family Galleries, Through Oct. 23 - "An Artist's Eye: A Journey through Modern and Contemporary Art with Sigmund Abeles". Guest curator and artist Sigmund Abeles brings a fresh eye and a different perspective to the Museum's collection of modern and contemporary art. Now 75, Sig has matured as an artist alongside some of the major artistic movements of the 20th century. His ability to bring to bear his vast experience as an artist, a South Carolinian, and his deep connections to the early years of the Columbia Museum of Art promises an exhibition full of variety and surprises. Through Oct. 23 - "Michael Kenna: Venezia". Kenna's work has often been described as enigmatic, graceful and hauntingly beautiful. The exhibition features 53 black and white images that demonstrate a skilled photographer's ability to capture on film what we cannot see with our eyes, such as the movement of time and the presence of atmosphere. Kenna has captured the essence of Venice, its romance, its miraculous existence and its crumbling beauty. His long exposures, sometimes lasting several hours during the darkest hours of the night, smooth over the surfaces of the canals, further emphasizing their street-like function in this floating city. With typically meticulous prints, Kenna distills

Venice to its iconic, elemental characteristics of water and light. Focus Gallery 4, Through Oct. 23 - "It Figures". The exhibit highlights the work of Sigmund Abeles, painter, sculptor, draftsman, teacher, storyteller and printmaker, and guest curator for the adjacent exhibition, "An Artist's Eye". This exhibit is intended to complement that show - a way for the visitor to understand visually the artistic make up, philosophy and lineage of Sigmund Abeles that finds its very personal expression in "An Artist's Eye". Mamie and William Andrew Treadway, Jr., Gallery 15, Through Nov. 27 - "A Tale of Two Sisters: Gifts from Ethel S. Brody and Leona Sobel". During more than 35 years of sustained giving to the Museum, Sobel and Brody have provided generous financial support toward museum exhibitions, object conservation and public programs, and have volunteered countless hours of research time. They have also played an active and integral role in shaping the growth of the permanent collection by donating objects and providing funds for the purchase of art. David Wallace Robinson, Jr. Community Gallery, Through Oct. 23 - "About FACE," featuring a display of figurative artworks created by artists in the Museum affiliate group, About Face featuring a figure model. About Face is a group of artists that share a figural model in the Museum's studios. This group, representing a wide range of ages and abilities, offers a supportive and friendly atmosphere in which to hone artistic skills. Wachovia Education Gallery, Through Nov. 6 - "It's a Mod, Mod World!". The modern and contemporary works in the exhibition, "An Artist's Eye", inspired Spring Valley High School artists to incorporate their own ideas into wonderful works of art. BB&T Focus Gallery, Ongoing - "Southern Traditions," will showcase the richness and diversity of the Museum's collection of furniture, ceramics, silver, basketry, sculpture and paintings by artists native to, or active in, South Carolina and its surrounding states. Among the works on view will be fine silver made by Charleston and Columbia silversmiths; a sweet grass basket by Mary Jackson (SC, born 1945); wood carvings by Edgar Alexander McKillop (NC, 1879-1950); and paintings by Charles Fraser (SC, 1782-1860), Xanthus Russell Smith (SC, 1839-1929), William Harrison Scarborough (SC, 1812-1871), William Aiken Walker (SC, 1838-1921), among others. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. Through Dec. 9 - "Imaging the Invisible," takes up the particular question of how technology has changed the public's understanding of the non-visible world. From Leeuwenhoek's adoption of the microscope for use in biology to current techniques for imaging atoms at the nano-scale, imaging technology has changed scientific discourse and research inquiry, but it has also changed how the general public conceptualizes scientific findings. Through Dec. 16 - "Showing Your Mettle". Juxtaposing the words mettle and metal, McKissick curators have mined the collection for a cross-section of metal objects that symbolize a person's character. Showing Your Mettle invites visitors to see some of Museum's hidden treasures, while also considering how these objects are tied to a person's identity. Featured objects include a Civil War mess kit, silver tea canister, dueling pistols, ceremonial swords, political memorabilia, coinage, awards and medals cast in gold, silver, bronze and brass. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver.
