possibilities of traditional pottery as a tool for communication, exchange, and an instigator of imagination. Dignicraft is a collective of media producers (Omar Foglio, Jose luis Figueroa, and Paola Rodriguez) and master artisans (Herlinda Morales, Angélica Morales, Inés Neal, and Juan Manuel Rosas Martinez) who share a common mission to bring awareness to the rich Purépecha pottery tradition in Mexico and the considerable measures being taken to educate the native artisans to eliminate toxic lead-based glazes from their practice. Through demonstrations of new sustainable glazes and techniques, Dignicraft aims to develop solutions that result in healthier conditions for those who are effectively suffering from a byproduct of their own livelihood. The sale of all goods from Dignicraft go to support these important initiatives and McColl Center for Art + Innovation programs. Hours: Thur.-Fri., 3-9pm & Sat., 11am-6pm. Mint Museum Randolph, 2730 Randolph Road, Charlotte. Ongoing - "American Glass". The nineteenth and early twentieth centuries represented a time of extraordinary growth for the American glass industry. Such companies as Boston & Sandwich Glass Company in Sandwich, MA; Steuben Glass Works in Corning, NY; and Libbey Glass Company in Toledo, OH, began operation and soon developed notable reputations for producing fashionable wares that were coveted by many middle- and upper-class consumers. "American Glass" showcases objects by these and other American glass companies, illustrating the variety of forms and styles that prevailed during this period. Glass-manufacturing techniques will be another focus of the exhibition, with representative examples of pressed, cut, blown, and molded glass. Nearly all of the works on view are from The Mint Museum's permanent collection of glass, which is second in size only to the ceramics collection in the museum's Decorative Arts holdings. Ongoing - "Arts of Africa". The African continent is remarkable in its geographic, social, political, and cultural diversity. This impressive diversity is reflected in the visual arts through a variety of media and forms including ceramics, masks, textiles, sculptures, prestige staffs, and shrines. With exceptional loans from private collectors and The Mint Museum's own collection of African Art, the museum is pleased to announce the expansion of its presentation of Arts of Africa, thereby providing visitors a more in-depth, meaningful, and exciting overview of African art. Heritage Gallery, Ongoing - Feature works of art, archival documents, and photographs documenting the growth and evolution of the museum, from its beginnings as the original branch of the US Mint to its founding as an art museum to the present and beyond. Ongoing "Art for the Millions: WPA Prints" and "Carolina" Clay," featuring a display of colorful wares made between 1920 and 1950 as potters from NC adapted their works to a market economy. "Art of the United States," featuring contemporary works from the Mint's permanent collection, including works by Romare Bearden, Maud Gatewood, John Biggers Juan Logan, Tarlton Blackwell, Radcliffe Bailey, Kojo Griffin, and others. "Art in the Americas," featuring paintings, precious metalwork, sculpture, furniture and decorative arts from the 17th through the 19th centuries illustrate the unique culture that emerged from the Spanish colonization of the Americas. Crosland Gallery Featuring a presentation of portraits with many fascinating images presented. Rankin Gallery -Featuring a presentation of the Romare Bearden Collection, including two "new" Beardens. Harris and Crist Galleries - Featuring some contemporary works that are new to the collection or have not been seen for a while. Delhom Gallery, Ongoing - The European Collection of ceramic works. Admission: Yes. Hours: Wed., 11am-9pm (free admission 5-9pm); Thur.-Sat., 11am-6pm; & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 704/337-2000 or at (www. mintmuseum.org).

Feb. 22 - "Beyond Craft: Decorative Arts from the Leatrice S. and Melvin B. Eagle Collection". Highlighting important studio objects made from the mid-1960s to the 2000s, with a special focus on the 1960s-1980s, the collection's great strength. The Eagle Collection offers an extraordinary opportunity for in-depth study of the foundational period of studio craft history as well as a look at how artists active then have transcended historical traditions to create a new paradigm today. The exhibition includes approximately 80-90 objects by 50 artists including Ralph Bacerra, Wendell Castle, Ruth Duckworth, Robert Ebendorf, John Garrett, Sam Maloof, Albert Paley, Tom Patti, Joyce Scott, and Takeshi Yasuda, and will include ceramics, fiber art, studio furniture, glass. jewelry, and works on paper. Through Feb. 1 -Connecting the World: The Panama Canal at 100". Timed to coincide with the centennial of the opening of the Panama Canal in 1914, this exhibition will feature a stunning selection of more than 50 works of art drawn from important collections across the country, fascinating historical ephemera, and two exciting new commissions created especially for the occasion by the internationally-renowned contemporary artist Mel Chin. A short story by celebrated author Anthony Doerr will also be part of the exhibition which explores timely global themes. Level 5 expansion space, Through Feb. 22 - "The Light Factory's Moment Mile". Back in November, the eyes of Charlotte turned toward Tryon Street, where 138 local photographers captured a simultaneous panoramic shot of a mile-long stretch of Tryon Street. And now, the resulting prints - 100 feet long - are going on view to the public in a pop-up gallery inside Mint Museum Uptown. "Moment Mile" will be on view in the museum's Level 5 expansion space raw, unfinished space on the museum's top floor that was first used last fall for The Boombox Project, a pop-up gallery of photos by Lyle Owerko. This new project, which will occupy even more of the space first glimpsed during the Boombox run, will continue the museum's recent emphasis on showcasing photography. Level 4 Modern & Contemporary Galleries, Through Feb. 22 - "Kristina Rogers: Into the Labyrinth". This is the Mint's first exhibition showcasing the work of Rogers (1945-2011), who was born in Germany and moved to Charlotte when she was nine years old. After studying in London and traveling widely, she settled with her husband in Waxhaw, NC, and got involved with The Light Factory. She is known for multi-layered photographs created by overlapping negatives, to which she frequently added objects, historical photographs, and other artifacts. Shortly before her death, she donated nearly 100 of her prints to the Mint's permanent collection, and this exhibition brings together 25 of her most provocative works. Romare Bearden Gallery, Through Feb. 22 - "Conversations: Romare Bearden and Richard Hunt". The exhibit explores parallels between the two contemporaries - Bearden, who was born in Charlotte in 1911 and became the world's most famous collagist before his death in 1988; and Hunt, widely regarded as one of the greatest living American sculptors. The Mint holds the largest repository of Bearden's art of any public art museum, and has returned many of his signature works to public view, including "Of the Blues: Carolina Shout", 1974, and "Evening of the Gray Cat," 1982, which inspired the design of the museum's Lewis Family Gallery. Hunt has been commissioned to create a monumental public sculpture in Bearden's honor for Charlotte-Mecklenburg's Romare Bearden Park, just one block north of Mint Museum Uptown. The sculpture is scheduled for unveiling sometime in 2015. Ongoing - The Mint

Cullowhee

Fine Art Museum, Fine & Performing Arts Center, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee. Drawing Gallery, Through Jan. 9 - "Other People's Pictures," by David Raymond and "Craigslist Mirrors," by Eric Oglander. An internationally renowned artist, filmmaker, art collector and arts supporter, David Raymond presents a select sampling of his re-contextualized (and now) artful 'found' photographs that he has been carefully collecting in the US, South America and Europe for the past ten years. Visiting flea markets, thrift stores and searching on the Net, Raymond has amassed a growing collection of several thousand images. When viewed singularly or in 'curated' groupings, these seemingly cast-away and forlorn pictures take on new meaning and in a sense, are brought back to life. Eric Orlander has been collecting images of mirrors for sale on Craigslist for several years and more than 500 lo-res images will be featured that shed light on many aspects of this American life. Opening portals to other worlds, together these two shows merge the everyday and the overlooked with the highest aspirations of what 'art', found or intended, can offer. Jan. 22 - Mar. 27 - "Tracking Time: Anna Jensen and Karen Ann Myers". A reception and a panel discussion will be held on Jan. 22, beginning at 5pm. This two-person exhibition by Anna Jensen (NC) and Karen Ann Myers (SC) brings together the work of two artists, who create intimate, surreal, and sometimes haunting, psycholical paintings of friends, family, lovers, and conflicts. Ongoing - "Worldviews," featuring selections from the Permanent Collection and new acquisitions featuring regional, national and international artists' works in all media. Hours: Tue.- Fri.,10am-4pm & Sat., 1-4pm. Contact: 828/227-3591 or at (http://www. wcu.edu/museum/).

Museum Uptown will house the world renowned

Projective Eye Gallery, UNC-Charlotte Center City Building, 320 E. 9th Street, Uptown Charlotte. Through Jan. 1 - "ICARUS: An exploration of the human urge to fly." This is a group exhibition that explores the human desire to fly. From Greek myth to international space programs, history has recorded the longing to resist our earthbound limits if only to defy the physical effects of gravity. This exhibit will explore many facets of physical flight along with the deeper psychological metaphors for ascension and hope. A juxtaposition of da Vinci's flying machine, photography documenting flight's early days in North Carolina, and our exploration of space will give a cursory visual history of flight, imagined and real. The psychological
