Chapel Hill - Carrboro

Plaza at 140 West Franklin Street in downtown Chapel Hill. 1st & 2nd Fri. - Every Friday beginning in April we will host our Live and Local Music and Art Series at the 140 West Plaza. Our 2nd Friday events will include visual arts. 2nd Fridays are the Chapel Hill Downtown Partnerships Art Walk. For info visit (www.townofchapelhill.org).

Various Downtown Chapel Hill Locations, Feb. 10, beginning at 6pm - "Shimmer: The Art of Light". This event will feature artists who work with light. Illuminated art installations, light projections, and programs using light will be found indoors and out, from Carrboro's ArtsCenter to Graham Street and beyond in Chapel Hill. For more information visit (shimmerevent.com).

Ackland Art Museum, UNC - Chapel Hill, Columbia & Franklin Streets, Chapel Hill. Through Feb. 5 - "Politics As Usual," featuring a series of three small-scale exhibitions using works from the Ackland's permanent collection, "Politics As Usual" examines ways in which artists engage with the power structures of their times. Through Feb. 19 - "For Philip Glass: Joshi / LeWitt / Close". The Ackland Art Museum joins in celebrating the 80th birthday of leading American composer Philip Glass by presenting a special installation that recognizes the key role that visual art and artists have played in Glass's life and work. Seven diverse works of modern and contemporary art by Chuck Close, Deepak Joshi, and Sol LeWitt call attention to the way in which regularized processes can lead to visual effects of emotional power and complexity, a fitting tribute to Glass's accomplishments as a composer. In addition, the Ackland is presenting Chuck Close's 1991 silk tapestry version of his portrait of Philip Glass, first realized in Close's iconic 1969 photorealist painting. The tapestry has been generously lent by James Keith Brown (UNC '84) and Eric Diefenbach. Through Apr. 9 - "Fever Within: The Art of Ronald Lockett". Organized by the Ackland Art Museum, "Fever Within: The Art of Ronald Lockett" is a groundbreaking retrospective of a passionately inspired and little-understood figure in twentieth-century American art. The first solo exhibition of Ronald Lockett's art, Fever Within emphasizes the powerful themes the artist explored over the course of his career through about 50 of his works of art. The exhibition, which will be presented in 2016-2017 in New York and Atlanta as well as in Chapel Hill, marks the first time that viewers will be able to gain insight into the full range of Lockett's innovative and evocative paintings and assemblages. Through May 14 - "Flora and Fauna". A glorious display of the importance of animals and plants in Asian art, "Flora and Fauna" will feature a wide variety of art works, including prayer rugs from the Middle East, statues from India, Chinese paintings, and much more. It will also mark the debut of the Ackland's newly acquired pair of Japanese screens by the painter Kajino Genzan (1868-1939), dazzling with their gold leaf background, exquisite colors, and beautifully rendered flowers. Through May 13, 2018 - "Color Across Asia," is part of a groundbreaking re-installation of the Ackland Art Museum's Asian galleries, presenting the Museum's acclaimed collection of art from across the continent. Museum Store Gallery (Franklin and Columbia Street), Store hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-5:30pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Museum Hours: Wed.-Thur., 10am-9pm; 2nd Fri. of the month, 10am-9pm; and Fri.-Sun, 10am-5pm. Contact: 919/966-5736 or at (www.ackland.org).

FRANK, 109 East Franklin Street, Chapel Hill. Through Feb. 5 - "Featured Artists". FRANK Gallery is ringing in the New Year with an exhibition of featured artists who unite to create a show that deeply explores both the natural and the mystical world. A reception will be held on Jan. 13, from 6-9pm. Through Feb. 5 - "Natural Forces," looks at the grandness of nature, both in the immense landscapes that surround us, and the microscopic elements that are the building blocks of all things living. Painters Nerys Levy and Carolyn Rugen look to the beauty in their surroundings for inspiration. Jeweler Julie Brooks creates simple graphite drawings on her "sugar coated" enamel surfaces that highlight DNA structures, viruses and cells. Michael and Laura Brader-Araje Community Outreach Gallery, Through Feb. 5 - Features original illustrations created for "Planting Hope", a picture book project written and illustrated by kids for kids. The story tells the tale of a hard-working girl discovering a golden seed and together bringing unity and prosperity to a neglected garden. Lassiter's landscapes explore the open spaces and rural scenery of Central and Eastern North Carolina, capturing the charm that can be found on back highways and farmland belonging to past generations. Ongoing - Featuring work from over 70 artists, Frank offers more than you'd expect from an art gallery. Frank is a collective, founded by the area's finest artists working together to open the door for creative innovation in the arts. Hours: Summer, Wed.-Thur., noon-5pm; Fri., Noon-8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm and Sun. 1-5pm. Contact: 919/636-4135 or at (www.frankisart.com).

Bechtler Museum of Modern Art, Levine Center for the Arts, 420 South Tryon St., Charlotte. Fourth-floor Gallery, Through Apr. 23 - "The Bechtler Collection: Relaunched and Rediscovered," an exhibition expanding on works from the museum's collection including modern and contemporary artists. The impetus for the show comes from extensive new research into the collection and the artists in the holdings, many of whom have very little material available in English. Significant findings from the research will be included in the exhibition. Through July 3 - Summing It Up at the End: Alberto Giacometti's 45 Drawings Portfolio. In 1963, in failing health, Giacometti put together this portfolio of 45 photogravure copies of drawings that illustrate his artistic evolution. May 12 - Sept. 10 - Celebrating Jean Tinguely and 'Santana'. Tinguely's iconic sculpture, completed in 1966, turned 50 in 2016; this survey of the sculptor's development will have sculptures from the Bechtler collection and on loan, and more. May 12 - Sept. 10 - The Swiss Effect: Swiss Artists from the Collection. This is a companion exhibition to the Tinguely show, highlighting other Swiss artists with global impact. Ongoing - The Bechtler Museum of Modern Art is named after the family of Andreas Bechtler, a Charlotte resident and native of Switzerland who assembled and inherited a collection of more than 1,400 artworks created by major figures of 20th-century modernism and donated it to the public trust. The Bechtler collection comprises artworks by seminal figures such as Alberto Giacometti, Joan Miro, Jean Tinguely, Max Ernst, Andy Warhol, Alexander Calder, Le Corbusier, Sol LeWitt, Edgar Degas, Nicolas de Stael, Barbara Hepworth and Picasso. Only a handful of the artworks in the Bechtler collection have been on public view in the United States. Admission: Yes. Hours: Mon., Wed.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Sun. noon-5pm; and open until 9pm the 1st. and 3rd. Fri. of each month. Contact: 704/353-9200 or at (www.bechtler.org).

Work by Cristina Toro

Latin American Contemporary Art Projects (LaCa), 1429 Bryant Street, in the heart of the revitalized FreeMoreWest neighborhood, Charlotte. Feb. 3 - Apr. 8 - "Strike a Match to Hear My Sound," featuring works by Cristina Toro. A reception will be held on Feb. 2, from 6-8pm. This new body of work addresses natural and supernatural phenomena related to fire and light. The inspiration for these works began in Toro's kitchen, where she experienced the phenomenon of luminous plasma causing ionization of air particles and creating a glowing light, or Saint Elmo's Fire. Ongoing - LaCa Projects is a platform dedicated to the presentation, development, and promotion of Latin American art and culture within the United States. The gallery encourages cross-cultural dialogue by representing a small group of influential and thought-provoking contemporary, emerging and mid-career artists, as well as exhibiting a broader range of work by established and Master Latin American artists. The gallery, which has expertise in a number of different art media with a significant focus on paintings, will also be part of a larger planned expansion that includes open artist studios and a dining concept. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 1-5pm or by appt. Contact: Neely Verano at (neely@lacaprojects.com) or call 704/609-8487.

Mint Museum Randolph, 2730 Randolph Road, Charlotte. Through Feb. 19 - "Leo Twiggs: Requiem for Mother Emanuel". Dr. Leo Twiggs who lives and works in South Carolina, is one of the region's most significant artists whose paintings have long dealt with the South's difficult racial history. He conceived of this moving nine-painting series, Requiem for Mother Emanuel, as a response to the tragic events of June 17, 2015 in Charleston, SC. In this cycle, Twiggs, in the words of Furman professor Dr. Courtney Tolison Hartness, sought to cope with "not only the horrors of the event," but also to create an "outlet for his amazement as South Carolinians united in grief and the Confederate battle flag was removed from the State House grounds." Twiggs himself states: "My paintings are a testimony to the nine who were slain. But I also record another moment: our state's greatest moment . . . a response that moved us from tragedy to redemption. For one shining moment we looked at each other not as different races but as human beings." Bridges and Levine Galleries, Ongoing - "Contemporary British Studio Ceramics: The Grainer Collection". Focused on the collection of Diane and Marc Grainer, this installation is a survey of
