Strand the moment I laid my eyes on it and have made it my adopted home. As a professional visual artist, my life includes: creating my art; teaching a painting Open Studio at the Myrtle Beach Base Recreation Center; belonging to the Waccamaw Arts & Crafts Guild; displaying my work at the Seacoast Artists Gallery at the Market Common and being part of the Seacoast Artist Guild.”

“Always an artist at heart, my love and appreciation for art was fed with trips to galleries, art fairs and museums. Without formal training, when given the opportunity, I could release the energy to create paintings with vivid colors and a spark of imagination. Painting is the magic that happens when you apply color to the surface and create an image that mirrors the concept you have in your mind’s eye.”

“Curiosity steers me,” adds Stachaeowski. “Exploring this wonderful universe of ideas, concepts, objects, creatures and people; figuring out how things work; the fascinating interactions we have between each other; studying how we see ourselves in relation to our surroundings, our thoughts, our feeling and our emo-
