Louise Wells Cameron Art Museum, @ intersection of Independence Blvd. & South 17th Street, Wilmington. Through July 9 - "Beyond the Horizon". Our relationship to the land has inspired artists for centuries. Contemporary artists continue to investigate place and create artwork that explores human connections to our changing world. Employing various mediums, these artists examine, challenge, and redefine the concept of landscape. Beyond the horizon, beyond the scope of our current understanding or range of perception, lies what we are unable to foresee or anticipate. Exploring our evolving perceptions of the natural world, Teresita Fernández, Maya Lin, Jason Mitcham, and Colby Parsons unearth our understanding of and our effect on the landscape. Sponsored in part by the Landfall Foundation and the City of Wilmington. Through July 9 - "Landscapes from the Collection". Our relationship to the land has inspired artists for centuries. Contemporary artists continue to investigate place and create artwork that explores human connections to our changing world. The artists in "Beyond the Horizon" employ various mediums to examine, challenge, and redefine the concept of landscape. Ranging from 1855 to 2002 the fourteen artworks from CAM's permanent collection in Landscapes from the Collection illustrate the varied styles and lasting influence of nature within the fabric of our shared cultural landscape. Through Aug. 27 - "From the Fire". In 1962, renowned glass artist Harvey Littleton (American, 1922-2013) demonstrated the potential of studio created glass and artists have continued to push the material in new directions. This exhibition celebrates the 55th anniversary of the studio glass movement, the influence of Littleton and the current innovative processes in contemporary glass. The exhibition includes loans from the Mint Museum, Charlotte, NC; Chrysler Museum of Art, Norfolk, VA; Corning Museum of Glass, Corning, NY; the collection of Lisa and Dudley
