GreenHill, a space for NC art, 200 North Davie Street, Greensboro Cultural Center, Greensboro. Through June 12 - "Last Remaining Cathedral: Illuminations of Nature", presenting a mid-career retrospective of paintings and works on paper inspired by man's essential relationship to the natural world by Robert Johnson alongside sculptural book forms in wood, fiber, mica by master book artist Daniel Essig. Essig and Johnson glean materials and find subjects in what Johnson has called the "last remaining cathedral" - places where wild nature still exists. A modern-day pilgrim, Robert Johnson has hiked and sketched in wilderness regions abroad, across the United States and near his home in Celo, North Carolina for over four decades to study scenery used as source materials for his iconic painting series. The practice of Asheville-based artist Daniel Essig also involves a close relationship with the natural world. Since childhood Essig collected and preserved fossils, sheets of mica, rusty nails and old books. Objects from his studio's archive of treasures embellish the sculptural books he creates that redefine the field of book arts. Both artists utilize the highest level of craft in works that transmit a spiritual connection to nature and a desire to encapsulate and render permanent a world that is rapidly disappearing. June 23 - Aug. 24 - "Gallery Nomads Asheville," an exhibition highlighting North Carolina's regional art centers. Five Asheville art spaces will set-up camp all summer in The Gallery at GreenHill and present an exhibition of their choosing in 500 square feet of space. Participating art centers include Blue Spiral 1, Black Mountain College Museum + Arts Center, Asheville BookWorks, Pink Dog Creative and REVOLVE. Cited as a "Top 25 Small Cities for Art" for the past 12 years, Asheville has been described as an "artist's utopia." This exhibition will look closely at Asheville's art scene, from leading commercial art gallery Blue Spiral 1 representing major southern artists for 25 years to the artist collective studio space Pink Dog Creative, one of the first to be established in Asheville's River Arts District. In addition to works by contemporary Western NC artists, visitors will be able to see works by 20th century masters such as Joseph Albers and Kenneth Noland from the collection of Black Mountain College Museum + Arts Center. Admission: ArtQuest Studios: $6 adult/child; children under 1 are free and free admission with Household-Level Membership or higher. Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. Gallery 6, Through June 12 - "Nexus: Found Objects". This exhibition illustrates how artists breathe new life into found objects. Each artist started with an item that would not ordinarily be of great interest in its own right, then either added to or reconfigured it. The object's original meaning or function is thereby replaced by a new, regenerated identity that in turn suggests new implications. The exhibition is organized by Elaine D. Gustafson, Curator of Collections. A Weatherspoon Art Museum 75th Anniversary Signature exhibition. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery, June 11 - Aug. 21 - "Single-Channel Catalyst: Alex Hubbard's 'Eat Your Friends' and Selections from the Collection". Humorous and tense, systematic and chaotic—these seemingly mismatched descriptors capture the playful complexity of Alex Hubbard's video works. In his 2012 piece, Eat Your Friends, the artist experiments with stacking full cups of coffee, climbing precariously balanced ladders, arranging coat hangers and walking canes, and pouring and spraying paint. He describes these disjointed endeavors as explorations that are similar to a child's taking apart a toy to see how it works: each presents a formal puzzle or problem to be solved. The Bob & Lissa Shelley McDowell Gallery, Through Sept. 4 - "Inside the Outside: Five Self-Taught Artists from the William Louis-Dreyfus Collection". The enigmatic—and often humorous and dramatic—works in this exhibition survey the production of five highly gifted artists: James Castle, Thornton Dial, Nellie Mae Rowe, Bill Traylor, and Willie Young. Prior labels of "outsider" and "visionary" have given way to the more appropriate term, "self-taught" art, though the genre remains one of the most intriguing in modern and contemporary art. Each of these artists has examined an idiosyncratic personal reality to create works full of imaginative and visual power, works that stand beside the canon of the mainstream art world. The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery, The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through June 12 - "De Kooning in Company." The jewel in the Weatherspoon's permanent collection crown, Willem de Kooning's painting, "Woman", is both a key piece in the artist's career and a prime example of Abstract Expressionism, the style that critically reigned in the mid 1940s and early 1950s. Yet, "AbEx", as it was called, was hardly the only style of art being made and exhibited. Artists were also pursuing careers with work that was representational, surrealist, and geometrically abstract. Comprised of other collection works from the decade surrounding Woman—1945 to 1955, this exhibition features artists such as Fairfield Porter, Arshile Gorky, Hans Hofmann, Elaine de Kooning, Jimmy Ernst, Jay DeFeo, Dorothy Dehner, and others. The exhibition is organized by Nancy Doll, Director. June 25 - Sept. 18 - "Matisse Drawings: Curated by Ellsworth Kelly from The Pierre and Tana Matisse Foundation Collection". With forty-five drawings from across fifty years of Henri Matisse's career, Matisse Drawings provides new insight into the French master's graphic work. Ranging in date from 1900 through 1950, the drawings reveal both Matisse's process and the range of his creativity as a draughtsman. Many of the drawings—from quick sketches to highly detailed images—have rarely or never before been exhibited. Curated by contemporary artist Ellsworth Kelly (who selected not only the drawings but also the frame choice and placement of the work), Matisse Drawings is accompanied by a fully illustrated catalogue that features an interview with Kelly, Kelly's original installation plan, and a special plates section reproducing all of the works in the exhibition. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Gandy, a legend in the Atlanta interior design scene, has shifted his focus to fiber art - specifically knitting. Gandy's show will explode the traditional notion of the sock form with one-of-a-kind creations designed around the foot, but never intended to be worn. Gandy will take the experimental, playful aesthetic he has become known for with designs like "Dreadsox" and "Tiptoe Through the Tulips" (featured in his book, "The Embellished Sock: Knitted Art for the Foot") a step further with sock sculpture like "A Walk in the Woods" and "Never More"... pieces that think outside the socks! Bunzl Gallery, Through June 5 - "Another Better World!" A reception and artist Panel discussion will be held on May 7, from 5-7pm. Curator David J. Brown writes: "Artists tend to see life on our 'third rock from the sun' and all its possibilities with clearer eyes than most of us". The artists in Another Better World!, from the US and abroad, consider the notion of Utopia--whether the idea is still relevant or merely a pipe dream laid to waste by our collective actions. The exhibition will activate the spaces of The Bascom, showcase various forms of media, and even allow for several site-specific works. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art.
