North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. East Building, North Carolina Gallery, Through Sept. 11 - "Altered Land: Works by Damian Stamer and Greg Lindquist". Lindquist and Stamer, both North Carolina raised, create shimmering landscape paintings, simultaneously abstract and representative, that slide in and out of focus. Their environments—from the natural to the manmade—are haunted by the past, appearing to be in the process of eroding, degrading, or fading into nothingness. Memory and loss, as well as the effects of time and economic and environmental ravages, are at play in these beautiful, melancholy landscapes. East Building, Julian T. Baker Jr. Photography Gallery, Through Sept. 25 - "Burk Uzzle: American Chronicle". Born in 1938 in Raleigh, Burk Uzzle began his career at age 17 as a staff photographer for the "News & Observer". At 23 he was "Life" magazine's youngest photographer, capturing powerful images of American life and culture. Uzzle is known for his iconic photographs of the civil rights movement, Martin Luther King Jr., and Woodstock. He is now an independent photographer based in Wilson, NC, and continues to chronicle American life from coast to coast. This exhibition provides an overview of Uzzle's career and is organized in collaboration with the Ackland Art Museum at UNC-Chapel Hill and the Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University. As a tribute to one of North Carolina's most renowned photographers, each museum is focusing on a different aspect of Uzzle's work, and all three shows will be on view concurrently during the summer of 2016. Video Gallery, East Building, Through June 5 - "Wolfgang Staehle". Staehle, a German-born digital artist now based in New York, is interested in the ideas of time and transformation. Two works featured at the NCMA take different approaches to these fundamental concepts. East Building, Level B, Studio 3, Through July 10 - "Actual State". The term actual state refers to a painting wherein the old varnishes and restorations have been removed, revealing the true condition of the original paint layer. Throughout its life, a painting can be restored many times, hiding years of damage, accidental or otherwise. As part of a conservation treatment, paintings are cleaned, or returned to their actual state, and revarnished. After revarnishing, areas of damage are blended in with the surroundings using special paints made just for conservators—a process called inpainting or retouching. The extent of damage is very rarely revealed to the museumgoer. East Building, Level B, Gallery 2, Through June 19 - "American Impressionist: Childe Hassam and the Isle of Shoals". Childe Hassam is celebrated as the foremost American impressionist painter. Among his greatest achievements are the hundreds of paintings he created over nearly 30 summers on Appledore Island in the Isles of Shoals, a cluster of rocky islands off the coast of Maine and New Hampshire. This exhibition, jointly organized with the Peabody Essex Museum of Salem, Massachusetts, will feature 39 of Hassam's finest Shoals paintings in oil and watercolor, borrowed from major public and private collections. The paintings in American Impressionist will be arranged as if one were walking around the island—emphasizing that the place is as interesting as the artist. East Building, Level B, Meymandi Exhibition Gallery, Through June 19 - "Marks of Genius: 100 Extraordinary Drawings from the Minneapolis Institute of Art". The exhibition features 100 of the most important drawings from the superlative collection of the Minneapolis Institute of Art. The selection of drawings, watercolors, gouaches, and pastels dating from the Middle Ages to the present includes examples by such masters as Guercino, Annibale Carracci, Romare Bearden, Edgar Degas, Egon Schiele, Emil Nolde, Henri Matisse, Roy Lichtenstein, Vincent Van Gogh, and Ed Ruscha. This eye-opening exhibition illuminates the historical and ongoing role of drawing as a means of study, observation, and problem solving; as an outpouring of the artist's imagination; and as a method of realizing a finished work of art. East Building, Level B, Gallery 3, Through June 19 - "Island Boy: Original Illustrations from Barbara Cooney's Classic Children's Book". This free exhibition presents the complete original artwork for Island Boy, a classic of children's literature by Barbara Cooney (1917–2000). Cooney is one of the most beloved American authors and illustrators of children's books. She once described Island Boy as her "hymn to Maine." Ongoing - Featuring 10 additional sculptures by the celebrated French artist Rodin on loan from Iris Cantor's private collection. Ongoing - "John James Audubon's The Birds of America". The state has owned this treasured volume since 1848, but it has never been exhibited. Ongoing - The North Carolina Museum of Art has an outstanding permanent collection of more than 5,000 objects spanning antiquity to the present day. On the occasion of the expansion, the Museum has acquired more

North Carolina Pottery Center, 233 East Avenue, Seagrove. Through July 2 - "Flower Power: Pottery & Plants". Within the context of this show, the term Flower Power is not a reference to the movement or ideology of the late 1960s and early 1970s. Here, Flower Power is a visual appreciation of the visceral and aesthetic power of pottery and plants. Individually, pottery, flowers, and plants have the power to affect our thoughts and feelings. When combined, that power sometimes seems intensified, perhaps because of the symbiotic relationship between earth and nature. Featured artists include: Garry Childs, Donna Craven, Onay Cruz, Judith Duff, Mary Farrell, Shanna Fliegel, Steven Forbes-deSoule, Michael Hamlin-Smith, Delores Hayes, Daniel Johnston, Matt Jones, Michael & Levi Mahan, Rob & Beth Mangum, Zeke McCanless, Jim McDowell, Allison McGowan, Bob Meier, Jim & Shiril Parentier, Hal & Eleanor Pugh, Rob Pulley, Charles and Linda Riggs, Joseph Sand, Akira Satake, Tom Whitaker, and Julie Wiggins.
