Cary Arts Center, 101 Dry Avenue, Cary. Through Sept. 22 - "Diane Pettus: Painterly Studies". "After touring recent still life exhibitions in our area museums, I decided to revisit the genre myself as a personal exercise in looking, feeling, and responding to common place objects. In these particular studies, I have used acrylic paint to experiment with color, line, and form and have laid open my process. I believe that independent of an artist, there is lifeblood within a work of art. A painting develops its own voice as it is being created and becomes part of the dialog with the artist and brush. In this play among the partners, seemingly stray marks and drips are a vital part of the painterly conversation, punctuating the lively give-and-take of the process." Hours: Mon.-Thur., 9am-10pm & Fri.-Sat., 9am-11pm. Contact: 919/469-4069 or at (www.townofcary.org).
