Work by Alice Ballard

TRAX Visual Art Center, 122 Sauls Street, Lake City. Through Dec. 28 - "Alice Ballard: Metamorphosis of Nature's Forms". Alice Ballard is a master ceramic sculptor born in Florence, SC. Ballard spent her formative years traveling and living around the world, including Paris, France, with her Air Force family before settling in her current home in Upstate South Carolina. Ballard's life's work has been centered around observing and interpreting our universal world, and its abundant life forms, into transcendent sculptural statements as a continuing reminder of the deep interconnectedness of all things. Ballard received her Masters Degree in Art from the University of Michigan before becoming a professional artist and educator. Her teaching experience spans five decades and includes artist residencies in southern Alaska, leading classrooms at Charlotte Country Day in the mid-80s, positions at Francis Marion University, Coastal Carolina, Penland School of Crafts, Arrowmont Craft School, the SC Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities Greenville, and Christ Church Episcopal Middle School. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 11am-5pm. Contact: 803/435-3860 or at (https://www.traxvisualartcenter.com/).

Lancaster

USC Lancaster Native American Studies Center, 119 South Main Street, Lancaster. Five Points Gallery, Through Aug. 30, 2025 - "Soul of the South." Curated by the Morris Center for Lowcountry Heritage, takes visitors on a musical journey highlighting the influences that Native Americans, enslaved Africans, and the European colonizers in the Lowcountry had on various genres of music: gospel, jazz, blues, musical theater and rock and roll. Largely sponsored by Gretsck, the renowned drum and musical instrument maker, the exhibit also showcases local musicians and groups whose notoriety reached beyond the Lowcountry. North Gallery, Through Aug. 30, 2025 - "Soul of the South." Curated by the Morris Center for Lowcountry Heritage, "Soul of the South" takes visitors on a musical journey highlighting the influences that Native Americans, enslaved Africans, and the European colonizers in the Lowcountry had on various genres of music: gospel, jazz, blues, musical theater and rock and roll. Largely sponsored by Gretsck, the renowned drum and musical instrument maker, the exhibit also showcases local musicians and groups whose notoriety reached beyond the Lowcountry. Red Rose Gallery, Through May 3, 2025 - "What the Fire May Gift," featuring artwork by USCL's 2023 Artist-in-Residence William "Bill" Harris, a Catawba potter and former Catawba Nation Chief. The exhibit features over 30 pieces of pottery, some created during Harris's term as the Center's 2023 Artist-in-Residence last fall, where he appeared courtesy of a 2024 South Carolina Arts Commission Folklife and Traditional Arts Grant. The exhibit also contains work from Harris' proteges Elizabeth Harris and Kent Harris, whom Harris works with as part of the group Blue Herron Clay, as well as work from his grandmother, Georgia Harris, a prolific potter who taught her grandson the traditional artform. Duke Energy Gallery, Through Aug. 5, 2026 - "Clay and Play!". After four years of planning and preparing, the Native American Studies Center is pleased to open its first-ever exhibit geared just for elementary-aged children. The exhibition is an educational children's exhibit designed with immersive play in mind, including colorful displays and wall murals, hands-on pottery replica displays, an interactive Three Sisters Garden where guests can "pick" corn, beans, and squash, and more. Center Special Projects Coordinator Elisabeth Avelar developed the exhibit, wanting to not only create a kid-friendly exhibit, but also to create an exhibit correlating to South Carolina's educational standards in history and covering the educational disciplines of STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Mathematics) and literacy. D. Lindsay Pettus Gallery, Ongoing - "The Story of Catawba Pottery". This National Endowment for the Arts funded exhibit traces the art, culture and history of Catawba pottery, the oldest Native American pottery tradition in the United States. Back Gallery, Semi-permanent Exhibit - "This is Us: Native American Studies". This exhibit celebrates the history and 10th Anniversary of USCL's Native American Studies, including artifacts and artwork from Collections, and a history of the building our Native American Studies Center calls home. Ongoing - The Center is 15,000 square foot facility in historic downtown Lancaster. Guests will have the opportunity to tour the NAS Center's gallery spaces, archives, classrooms, and archaeology, language, and audio-visual labs. Home to the world's largest collection of Catawba Indian pottery, the NAS Center will offer exhibits of regional Native American Art, classes and programs focused on Native American history, culture, archaeology, folklore, and language. Hours: Tue., Wed., Fri., & Sat., 10am-5pm; Thur., 10am-7pm; by appt. Closed Mon.&Sun. Myrtle Beach / Grand Strand

Work by Travis Hicks

Franklin G. Burroughs • Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Blvd., beside Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Through Feb. 23, 2025 - "Paul Yanko: Primary Structures". Combining architectural and organic shapes, then layering them with varying densities of vividly colored paint, abstract artist Paul Yanko creates intricately detailed compositions that draw the viewer in like a maze and invite a closer inspection. Yanko's work has focused on developing a response to abstraction that addresses nuances of color and surface along with the representation of flat and illusionistic space. He has described his work as "an ongoing exploration in the development of disparate and complex surface qualities reconciled through various means of paint application." Through Dec. 29 - "47th Annual National Exhibition of the South Carolina Watermedia". A reception and awards ceremony will be held on Oct. 3, fro, 5:30-7:30pm. With nearly 180 entries, the Society's most competitive show in years, juror Ken Call meticulously curated a collection of 58 pieces that represent artists from coast to coast. The exhibition features many Southeastern artists, particularly those residing in Georgia, North Carolina and, of course, South Carolina. With works ranging from abstract to stark realism, the breadth of watermedia is explored and enriched through this year's Annual National Exhibition. Nov. 21 - 23, from 10am-4pm - 4th Annual Pottery Bazaar. It's the most creative shopping event of the year! The Myrtle Beach Art Museum presents the 4th Annual Pottery Bazaar on Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 10am-4pm.
