Work by Joseph Smolin

Good Art Co., 10 Central Avenue, Greenville. Feb. 7 - Mar. 2 - "Sinkhole, SC," is a must-see solo exhibition with apocalyptic themes from the South's breakout contemporary artist, Joseph Smolin. An opening reception will be held on Feb. 7, from 6-9pm and a closing reception an Artist Talk will be offered on Feb. 27, from 6-9pm. The show approaches sinkholes both as literal collapses in the earth and as a metaphor for communal and psychological catastrophe. Smolin lost his home to Hurricane Helene in September. Through paintings, sculpture, and experimental film, "Sinkhole" is an immersive art experience that presents a deeply personal look at how communities in Southern towns and cities increasingly suffer from gentrification, displacement, and climate disaster. Ongoing - Located in the heart of Greenville, SC, Good Art Co. is a collaborative creative space that fosters camaraderie and builds culture by bringing great local artists + makers together to inspire, engage and educate our community. Hours: Wed.-Sat., 10am-6pm or by appt. Contact: 864/381-7539 or e-mail at (info@getgoodart.co).
