North Charleston

Work by Alice Colin

Park Circle Gallery, formerly the Olde Village Community Building, 4820 Jenkins Avenue, in the bustling Park Circle neighborhood of North Charleston. Mar. 5 - 29 - "Holding It Together," is a joint exhibition of mixed media works by Alice Colin (Mount Pleasant, SC) and oil paintings by Elizabeth Northcut Williams (North Charleston, SC). A reception will be held on Mar. 7, from 5-7pm. "Holding It Together" is an evocative exhibition presented by artists Alice Colin and Elizabeth Northcut Williams exploring the intricate themes of ancestry and identity. Through their unique artistic lenses, both artists delve into personal and collective histories, creating a powerful dialogue that highlights the bonds between past and present. By intertwining various mediums and techniques, Colin and Williams invite viewers to reflect on their own heritages and the complexities of self-identification in a rapidly changing world. Ongoing - In addition to the monthly exhibitions, the "gift shop" at the North Charleston City Gallery, which features a variety of items by local artists, will also be moved to PCG. Cultural Arts will also continue to host art workshops and recurring meetings for art groups and guilds in the space once gatherings are safe to resume. Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Fri., 11am-6pm & Sat., noon-4pm. Contact: 843/740-5854, or at (<https://www.northcharleston.org/residents/arts-and-culture/>).

Orangeburg

Cecil Williams Civil Rights Museum, 1865 Lake Drive, Orangeburg. Ongoing - Established in 2019, the exquisite ultra-modern facility displays 1000 images of the Civil Rights Movement, but from the perspective of The Epochal South Carolina Events That Changed America. The massive archives comprise the largest collection of images of this type among all museums in the United States; including the Atlanta based High Museum which archives 300 images. The images were created by the founder, Cecil Williams, who began photography at age 9 and covered almost all historically significant events in South Carolina; from 1950 Briggs v. Elliot in Summerton, thru the 1969 Charleston Hospital Workers' Strike...and Beyond. From 1955 through 1969, Williams was a freelance journalist for "JET" magazine. His images have appeared in thousands of magazines, newspapers, historical publications, and motion picture productions. The museum design itself is part of the founders' DNA because; upon graduating from high school, Williams wanted to attend Clemson University to study architecture but denied because of his race. He then purchased a drafting board and through the years, designed three residences; including one featured in "EBONY", and the museum's design which has evolved into a living history facility. Hours: call ahead for hours. Contact: call 803-531-1662 or at (www.cecilwilliams.com).

Spartanburg

Throughout downtown Spartanburg, 3rd Thursday, from 5-8pm - "Spartanburg ArtWalk," a free self-guided tour through participating galleries across Spartanburg's Cultural District. Contact: visit (www.chapmanculturalcenter.org).

Throughout downtown Spartanburg's Cultural District, Ongoing - The Creative Crosswalk Project is a public art initiative in which local artists and designers design and paint a series of crosswalk murals, transforming the crosswalks into works of art, on Main Street in Spartanburg, SC. The downtown cultural district area is often bustling with events and pedestrians, and the pedestrians rely heavily on a multitude of crosswalks to safely traverse the downtown Spartanburg area. The problem is that crosswalks are incredibly easy to overlook, they are rarely visually appealing, and they can even be quite dangerous. In an effort to remedy these issues, Chapman Cultural Center, the City of Spartanburg, and the Spartanburg Area Chamber of Commerce came together to organize the Creative Crosswalk Project. Work by Bridget Benton

Artists Collective I Spartanburg, 578 West Main St., Spartanburg. Galleries II & III, Through Mar. 29 - "Come Hell AND High Water: Surviving the 2024 Flood with Resilience and Purpose," showcases work of 310 ART artists. A reception will be held on Mar. 20, from 5-8pm, as part of Spartanburg ArtWalk. An artist's life is a creative and rewarding journey that involves hard work, dedication and passion. Sometimes, it also means overcoming unimaginable hardships, such as those experienced in September 2024 by Western North Carolina artists impacted by Hurricane Helene. More than a dozen impacted artists with 310 ART and Friends in Asheville, NC, will have works in this exhibition. "We hope to convey to everyone that artists will persevere through hardship and loss," says Fleta Monaghan, founder of 301 ART and Friends and one of the 14 exhibitors. "The artists of 310 ART and Friends in this exhibit lost a vast amount of work in the flood of 2024 caused by Hurricane Helene. Our studios, art and art materials were lost over night. We have come together in this first group show of 2025 to proclaim our resilience and perseverance as we continue to create, teach and spread the joy of creativity." Solomon Gallery, Mar. 11 - Apr. 26 - "Open Doors Preview Exhibition," featuring works which highlights the upcoming Open Doors Studio Tour. A reception for the exhibit will be held from 5-8pm, on Mar. 20. A second reception will be held from 5-8pm, on Apr. 17. Both are in conjunction with Spartanburg ArtWalk. "The Open Doors Preview Exhibition is an opportunity for the public to get an idea of the artwork they will see when visiting artists' studios during the tour weekend April 26 and 27," says participating artist Glenda Guion, co-chair of the events with Beth Regula, chair of the management board of the Artists Collective. "All 45 participating artists have been invited to exhibit one to two pieces of original artworks in the preview exhibit. It's a great way for people to decide which artist they want to see more of or which studios they want to visit during the tour." Ongoing - The Collective features a twenty thousand square foot facility offering affordable studio space, retail space, three galleries, a full ceramics studio, printery, and works by 50 local artists. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm; with extended hours on the 3rd Thur. of each month until 9pm for Spartanburg's Art Walk. Contact: 864/804-6501 or at (artistscollectivespartanburg.org/).
