Virtual Exhibits

Artsville Collective in the Asheville, NC, area proudly presents the Virtual Gallery of Artists (VGA) program, an initiative designed to help elevate the careers of local artists. VGA offers artists a unique opportunity to gain global exposure, valuable marketing skills, and an array of promotional resources. The VGA program invites individual artists to apply for three months of marketing exposure through print, digital, and podcast platforms. Artsville provides guidance on building relationships with the press and art buyers, empowering artists by coming alongside them and forming connections. Notably, Artsville does not take any commissions on art sales, ensuring artists keep their full earnings. For further information about Artsville programs and opportunities, contact Meredith McBride by e-mail at (mccoy.louise.mcb@gmail.com), call 828/216-8050 or visit (<https://www.artsvilleusa.com/>).

Blue Spiral 1, 38 Biltmore Ave., Asheville. Main Level Gallery, Through Apr. 23 - "Figuratively Speaking," featuring works by: Justin Archer, Tamie Beldue, Rafel Bestard, Tori Cherry, Andréa Keys Connell, Bill Killebrew, Jon Sours, David Samuel Stern, William Paul Thomas, and Adana Tillman. The rendered figure serves as a mirror to the intricate facets of human experience—resilience, empathy, sexuality, confidence, mystique, and humor. This group exhibition delves into these personal interpretations through a diverse array of mediums, including woven photographs, large-scale sculptures, paintings, and drawings. With its blend of distorted observations, unique narratives, and innovative material exploration, Figuratively Speaking offers a multifaceted celebration of the figure. Lower Level Gallery, Through April 23 - "Tattoo/Flash," featuring works by: Ekin Balcioglu, Shawn Barber, Samuel Hung, Chris Musina, Peter Olson, Frank Orti, Nadia Rosales and Adam Shrewsbury. "Tattoo/Flash" explores the rich history and modern artistry of tattooing, celebrating it as a dynamic and evolving art form. This exhibition showcases the cultural significance of tattoos, highlighting their ability to bridge tradition and innovation, personal expression, and visual storytelling. Featured works range from realistic paintings of tattoo shops to sgraffito tattoo imagery on clay. Adding an interactive element to the exhibition, a local tattoo artist will host a pop-up flash tattoo booth in the exhibition space of the Lower Level Gallery. Small Format Gallery, Through Apr. 23 - "Reuben Negrón". Negrón is a figurative realist known for his narrative watercolor paintings and charcoal drawings. His richly detailed and vulnerable scenes are an examination of the real-world stories and experiences of the people and places they depict. His work, often created in self-contained series, is grounded in themes of intimacy, identity, memory, and time. Showcase Gallery, Through Apr. 23 - "Jon Rollins and Justin Turcotte". Justin Turcotte sources raw steel from local yards, transforming it into striking geometric forms through a meticulous process that involves hydraulic rollers, presses, and heat. This labor-intensive technique is the result of years of experimentation and hands-on mechanical work. His steel sculptures are especially notable for their dynamic relationship with the surrounding environment and often employ the optical illusion known as a moiré effect. Similarly experimental, John Rollins' abstract paintings offer a careful study in process and resolution. Each piece incorporates layers of collaged scraps, altered with paint, drawing, and razor work, resulting in artifacts that encapsulate the questions, mistakes, and discoveries of their time. Ongoing - Featuring works in a variety of mediums by regional, national and international artists. Hours: Sun.-Tue., 11am-5pm & Wed.-Sat., 11am-6pm. Contact: 828/251-0202 or at (www.bluespiral1.com).
