Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery and The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through June 16 - "The Penetrating Gaze". If looks can kill, then the images in this exhibition need to come with a warning. As windows to the soul, the eyes tell it all. Fitting then that the artworks in this exhibition, many of which are self-portraits, show figures with intense expressions. Their penetrating gazes trigger an exchange or mental interaction between the viewer and subject. All this intensity, however, does not necessarily signal mental imbalance, but rather reflects the potency of the sitters' emotions. Gaze into their eyes and see if you can measure the depth of the forces within them. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery & The Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery, Through June 2 - "2013 UNCG Masters of Fine Arts Thesis Exhibition." The exhibition features work by six artists in the University of North Carolina at Greensboro's Department of Art graduate program: Nickola Dudley (painting/drawing), Matthew Hayes (video), Harriet Hoover (sculpture/drawing), Branch Richter (painting), Amy Stibich (sculpture/drawing), and Clark Williamson (sculpture). The artists in this graduating class use a variety of media and focus on an array of issues. Their MFA exhibition demonstrates the energy and commitment of the artists, who engaged in numerous critiques by faculty, visiting artists, and their peers to develop significant bodies of work. Gallery 6, Through June 23 - "Head to Head". The human head is the nexus of thought, emotion, and expression. Four of our five senses are located there. The importance of human head—regardless of size and shape—visually links the great variety of artworks in this exhibition, which range in date from 1907 (Tete d'enfant by Henri Matisse) to 1995 (Trophy Head by John Ahearn). A number of the pieces are portraits of specific individuals and they present some interesting artistic linkages. For example, both William Zorach and Robert Laurent carved stone portraits of the prominent art dealer, Edith Halpert, who opened the influential Downtown Gallery in New York City in 1926 and represented both artists there. All works in the exhibition are from the permanent collection of the Weatherspoon Art Museum. The exhibition is organized by Nancy Doll, director. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue., Wed. & Fri., 10am-5pm, Thur., 10am to 9pm and weekends, 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-5770 or at (<http://weatherspoon.uncg.edu/>).

Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Through July 14 - "Highlands High School Ceramics Exhibit," featuring the best works of students who participated in The Bascom's High School art class collaboration project. Available to students in grades 9 through 12 at Highlands High School, this hands-on course has received positive reviews from students, and teaches far more than simply ceramics. Last August, each student made 10 bowls to donate to the Empty Bowls project, helping to reach the goal of 800 bowls. June 22 - Sept. 1 - "Southern Lights". A chance meeting of four artists at a painting workshop has resulted in the creative collaboration that produced "Southern Lights," a colorful exhibition at The Bascom. Charlotte Foust, Martica Griffin, Krista Harris and Audrey Phillips have woven their various talents and styles together to form the selected compositions, based on their common Southern roots. Inspired by the distinct sense of place that defines the South, these four talented artists explore color and mark-making in their abstract expressionist art. Through Aug. 18 - "ReDress: Upcycled Style by Nancy Judd". Through this exhibit you'll realize that haute couture has truly come to Highlands. But these dramatic fashions are not what they appear: instead of real fur, jewels and luxe fabrics, they are made of such components as aluminum cans, tires and plastic grocery bags—even crime scene tape! Atrium, Through June 2 - "V is for Vineyard". In conjunction with Collective Spirits, local glass blowers will display handcrafted stemware, pitchers, stoppers and serving pieces that will make the perfect wine-tasting event. Bunzl Gallery, Through June 16 - "Landscape Photography in a Changing World, an historical overview of the natural environment, how man has changed it and how photographers have interpreted it, featuring works selected by noted curator Jane Jackson. Since its inception in the 1800s, photography has enthralled artists, who use it as inspiration for paintings, sculpture and other media, as well as an end in itself. She has selected the photographs from private collections in Atlanta, as well as video works from the Acme Gallery in Los Angeles. Featured in the exhibition are rare and iconic works by some of the world's legendary photographers:

Ansel Adams, Sand Dunes, Sunrise, Death Valley National Monument, California, 1948; Brett Weston, Hawaii, 1985; Sally Mann, Deep South #3, 1998; Henri Cartier-Bresson, Hungary, 1964; and Eliot Porter, Redbud and Tulip Poplar, Great Smokey Mountains National Park, North Carolina, April 9, 1968, to name just a few. The exhibit is made possible through the generous support provided by The Koski Family Foundation and Delta Air Lines. Balcony Gallery, Through July 28 - "A Never Ending Stream: The Art of Linda Anderson". Recent paintings by Linda Anderson reveal how her bucolic scenes have matured and become more refined. Anderson's work continues to surge forth in a never-ending stream of pictures, stories and fantasies. This exhibit will display a selection of Anderson's early works along with more recent ones revolving around the things she loves. Ongoing - The vivid imagination of a child is the recurring theme for this gallery space and masterpieces by young artists from art classes at The Bascom, local non-profits and schools are on view. We believe in teaching the importance of thinking, creating, exploring and designing and in an effort to support these budding artists their works of art are displayed in changing exhibitions throughout the year. Drop in anytime and be inspired. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Bascom Campus, Ongoing - "Stick Works: Patrick Dougherty Environmental Sculpture". Internationally recognized sculptor Patrick Dougherty has constructed a monumental site-specific work using saplings as his construction material. Dougherty combines primitive construction techniques with his love of nature to build a one-of-a-kind sculpture on The Bascom campus. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).
