digital materiality. Their music has appeared across the US and internationally, including Germany, Denmark, Australia, Mexico, Canada, Italy, the UK, and Switzerland. Miller is Assistant Professor of Sonic Arts at Portland State University, and holds a Ph.D in Music from UC San Diego.

Stefani Byrd's art practice includes video, new media, and interactive technologies. Their practice explores the impact of imbalanced power structures. Her work has been exhibited nationally and internationally including South Korea, Switzerland, Spain, and Greece. Byrd is currently Assistant Professor of New Media in the Film Studies Department at the University of North Carolina Wilmington.

"As close to being a rock band as a chamber orchestra can be" (The New York Times), Alarm Will Sound is a 20-member touring ensemble led by Artistic Director Alan Pierson that commissions, performs, and records innovative works by established and emerging composers, especially works that incorporate theatrical and multimedia elements.

Here There is an immersive multimedia installation exploring complex historical relationships among labor, industrial infrastructure, and collective memory through an examination of three significant Transcontinental Railroad sites in Northern California: Donner Pass, Bloomer Cut, and Roseville Train Yard. The project weaves together film spanning both coasts, archival materials, audio interviews, field recordings, and a chamber orchestra score. Here There creates a dance between the everyday and the epic, past and present, noise and silence. The work is a collaboration between UNCW Professor Stefani Byrd, Composer Caroline Louise Miller, and world-renowned contemporary music ensemble Alarm Will Sound.

Caroline Louise Miller's work explores affect, ecology, labor politics, tactility, and

Sunset River Gallery in Calabash, NC, Features a Small Works Show

Sunset River Gallery in Calabash, NC, will present a new Small Works exhibition, on view from June 14 through July 20, 2024. A reception will be held on June 14, from 5-7pm.

The group show will feature beachscapes, wildlife scenes, waterway paintings and more in a range of media – all measuring 12 by 12 inches or smaller.

Gallery director Samantha Spalti said, "Our visitors come from near and far to experience all that the gallery offers. Locals count on us for fine art for their homes and businesses. Visitors often seek local work that commemorates their trip here - especially if it travels easily.
